Academic Year 2005-2006

From: Financial Aid Office

Subject: Request for Review of Financial Aid Eligibility Based on Change in Family Income

When applying for financial aid assistance for the 2005-2006 year, your family's 2004 calendar income is utilized as a measure of your ability to contribute toward educational expenses. In cases where total family income for the calendar year 2005 is expected to be less than 2004 income, the changing income situation can be taken into account.

1) Please provide documentation of all family income for 2005, including check stubs with year-to-date earnings, and/or a determination of benefits from the Division of Employment Security. Your request WILL NOT be acted upon without supporting documentation.

2) EXPECTED 2005 INCOME INFORMATION

REPORT AMOUNTS FOR CALENDAR YEAR 2005 (1/1/05-12/31/05)	Student	Spouse	Mother	Father
Expected 2005 income earned from work-January 1, 2005 to last date of employment. Report full year 2005 income if still employed.
Expected 2005 other taxable income (unemployment compensation, alimony, etc.)
Expected 2005 untaxed income and benefits (TANF, child support, social security, etc.)
Other 2005 income

3) Please write a detailed statement that explains the reasons why you wish to receive special consideration with regard to your financial aid application. Please include complete details about changes in income, including the dates that any loss of job/loss of income occurred.
